PARDON FOR THE COUNTESS TARNOVSKI

Rome, Oct. 2.—After having served less than half of her eight years' prison sentence, the Countess Marie Tarnowski, often spoken of as the most beautiful and captivating queen of the great criminal adventures of history, has been pardoned by the Italian government. The announcement of the pardon has aroused much interest and not a little public criticism of the action of the authorities in setting at liberty a woman who, in the language of Prof. Rossi of Genoa, the distinguished alienist and psychologist, is suffering from "a diabolical madness which makes her unswearable for her acts, and who should be so confined as to prevent her from injuring others or herself."

For two years the woman has been confined in prison in Venice on a charge of murder. With her two lovers, a Moscow lawyer and a young Russian official, she was convicted in 1910 on a charge of successfully conspiring to murder her husband, Count Paul Kamarovski, in 1907. The charges were based on the accumulated evidence produced through an exhaustive investigation by the Austrian and Russian police, by the confessions of the lovers, Naumoff and Prilukoff, and even by the confession of the Countess herself, which, however, she later denied and retracted.

The Countess Tarnowski, despite her long career of intrigue and adventure, is now but little more than thirty years of age and is said to be as beautiful as ever. She is the daughter of a noble Russian family, and was educated in a convent. While still in her teens she eloped with Count Tarnowski, a wealthy man, who after their marriage treated her with great brutality. She grew to hate him and deceive him. One of her lovers, Borgevsky, was shot by her husband and died in her arms. Another Russian officer named Stahl, committed suicide, and it is alleged that he did so at her instigation. Her brother-in-law, the younger Tarnowski, also committed suicide.

In 1903 the Countess met Prilukoff, a Moscow lawyer, who deserted his wife and family, embezzled his clients' money, and traveled through Europe with her. On their voyages they met Naumoff, a neurotic young man of twenty-one, who also came under her spell. Later she encountered Count Kamarovski, to whom she became betrothed.

In the summer of 1907 the Countess, according to her own account, became tired of her wanderings with her lovers, and began to think of marrying Count Kamarovski and settling down. Prilukoff, she asserted at her trial, suggested that murder was far preferable to matrimony. Then it was that the plot to insure the Count's life and then kill him began to be hatched. The first step was to induce him to insure his life in her favor for $100,000.

The next step was the inflaming of Naumoff against Kamarovski, and this was effected in a simple and ingenious manner. A telegram was drafted, addressed to the Countess, and signed with Kamarovski's name. It contained the foulest insults against both the Countess and Naumoff. This telegram was sent from Vienna to Venice, and telegraphed back to Vienna. There Prilukoff and the Countess caused it to be shown to Naumoff, and the latter, in a frenzy of rage hurried to Venice to take vengeance on the supposed slanderer.

Naumoff made his way to the Count's villa early in the morning of Sept. 4, 1907. Brushing past the maid, who opened the door, he strode into the Count's bedroom. The latter, awakened by his entry, cried out in alarm. Naumoff, without a word, fired at him five times with a revolver, inflicting mortal wounds. Naumoff, his rage spent, confused, helpless and remorseful, made only a half-hearted attempt to escape, and was captured at Verona.

Prilukoff was a witness of the murder. He had shadowed Naumoff to Venice, and heard the shots. Sure that the deed was done, he returned to Vienna. But the address of the Countess was discovered by the Venetian police in the rooms of the murdered man, and both Prilukoff and the Countess were arrested. Naumoff, broken in spirit, confessed his crime and told of his passion for the Countess after some vain attempts to shield her. Prilukoff sought to commit suicide, but the prison wardens were vigilant and his life was saved. Only the Countess preserved an unshaken calm. The trial of the trio of conspirators took place in Venice and consumed near six months. All three were convicted. The jury found that Naumoff and the Countess were not fully responsible for their acts. They were sentenced to three and eight years' imprisonment respectively. Prilukoff was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment.

MATTERS IN THE BALKANS AP-
PROACHING A CRISIS—TURK-EY MAY FIGHT.

Constantinople, Oct. 1.—The Cabinet after a prolonged meeting tonight decided to order a partial mobilization of the Turkish army. The exact orders are for the present kept secret.

The cabinet also rejected the Servian demand respecting the transportation of ammunition through the Turkish lines. This action is in reply to a note sent to the Porte by the Servian Minister, Dr. Ninadovitch, in which he requested the Porte either to sanction the passage of ammunition at present detained by the Turkish authorities or return it to France.

Servia has now stopped consignments of ammunition from Germany for Turkey, while Bulgaria has suspended freight traffic between Turkey and Bulgaria and commanded all the cars for military service.

The Porte now has decided to detain all Greek vessels in Turkish waters in order to requisition their services for the transport of troops.

Although no communication has yet been presented by any of the Balkan states with reference to Macedonia, it is the opinion of many diplomats here they will formulate a demand for Macedonian autonomy which Turkey is certain to refuse. War will then be

COALGATE GRANTS AN INTERURBAN FRANCHISE

Coalgate, Okla., Oct. 2.—The city council of Coalgate has granted two franchises for electric street railways one to D. Padrick of the Oklahoma Electric and Refrigerating company and one to William Oglesby of McAlester. The franchise to Mr. Oglesby was for an interurban line through the city from Atoka and Lehigh and the franchise to Padrick calls for a regular city car line. The franchise both provide that work shall begin within nine months from date of ratification of the voters.

For several years the proposition of building an interurban line to Atoka from Coalgate has been seriously considered and now it seems likely that the line is a certainty and that work will be started this fall or winter.

At the same meeting of the council a final resolution was passed to pave about ten blocks on Byrd street, which is one of the principal residence streets in the city. Coalgate is getting ready for the great influx that will come with the sale of the segregated coal lands.

Inauguration of President Brooks.

Invitations are now being sent to the presidents of colleges and universities throughout the country, noted educators, state officials, alumni, friends of the University and others, requesting their presence at the formal inaugural ceremonies of Dr. Stratton D. Brooks. The event will take place on October 21st at the State University, after which an Educational Rally will be held in the Overholser Opera House at Oklahoma City. Many of the most educators of America will deliver addresses at the ceremonies, which with the other features will make the occasion one of the most elaborate in the history of education in the state of Oklahoma. The inaugural address of President Brooks is awaited with interest for at that time he will outline the policy of education at the State University and will show the needs and remedies through which the state may attain a higher place in the educational world.

For some days no Democrat came around with a contribution for the Wilson fund, but this morning L. A. Ellison broke the monotony by sending the News a check for his dollar. The News has sent in two checks for $10 each and hopes to be able to mail another for a like amount by Saturday. According to Judge Bolen there are 432 candidates for the Ada post-office to date, and these should begin coming across.

inevitable unless the Powers succeed in restraining Bulgaria and Servia by a threat of occupation by Austria and Russia of these two kingdoms if they embark in hostilities against Turkey. But it is doubted if Austria and Russia will be able to agree on such joint action.

Consequently it is regarded probable that Austria, backed by Germany will act singly. Or it may be that war can be staved off by assembling a European conference.

It is reported that the Turkish Government is about to address a circular to the Powers repudiating responsibility for the crisis which it says has resulted from the provocative attitude of the Balkan states.

METHODIST LADIES ENTERTAIN

Last evening the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Methodist Church entertained in the church parlors the members and friends of the church from 8:30 to 11. The evening's entertainment began with a musical and literary program consisting of vocal and instrumental selections and readings which lasted for one hour. At the conclusion of this program all the guests repaired to the church parlors where luncheon was served. The object of this reception was to bring the membership of the church closer together, to get better acquainted and to give all an opportunity to meet the new members. All these things and more were accomplished. About two hundred were present. All formality was dispensed with, and everybody went in for a good time. It proved to be decidedly the best social event in the church for this year, and all went away with nothing but words of praise for the ladies on account of the hospitable and generous manner in which they entertained. A peep into the kitchen revealed the fact that the ladies were prepared to serve as many more, and it is to be hoped the next time the ladies "receive" they will have nothing left on their hands.

Rev. T. V. Mullinax returned today from his visit of a month to his boyhood home in Georgia. He had not seen that country in over thirty years and greatly enjoyed his visit, but says he has no desire to live there again. Oklahoma is good enough for him.

Had One Resemblance.

One night, in a Texas town, John McCullough's company was playing "Bagomar," and young Sothern was to be the leader of the barbarian army. During the day he and his companions-in-arms ransacked the town for fur coverings in which to appear on the stage. They secured some skins which had been imperfectly cured. In the scene where the barbarians rushed on McCullough, the tragedian stood aghast and almost forgot his lines. When the curtain fell he turned to the fur-covered battalion and said: "Boys, you don't look like a barbarian army, but I'm d---d if you don't smell like one."

REPUBLICANS' EXTRAVAGANCE

Government Cost More Than Doubled Under Roosevelt.

DEMOCRATS' GREAT RECORD

Startling Figures Which Show That the Cost of Our National Existence and the High Cost of Living Must Be Reduced.

Under a proper downward revision of the Republican tariff schedules the people of the United States would save $2,000,000,000 each year, or over $100 per family on manufactured goods alone.

President Taft's vetoes of the wool tariff bill and the steel tariff measure passed by a Democratic house COST THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES ABOUT $650,000,000 PER ANNUM.

The cost of conducting the federal government MORE THAN DOUBLED between the close of President Cleveland's second administration (Democratic) and the beginning of President Roosevelt's second administration (Republican).

As the DIRECT RESULT OF HIGH REPUBLICAN TARIFF SCHEDULES the people of the United States pay a tax FROM NINE TO SEVENTY-EIGHT PER CENT on food and ordinary household articles used in the home by every family, rich and poor.

The total cost of running the federal government in 1890 was $55,000,000.

The amount appropriated at a single session of the Sixty-first congress for the fiscal year 1911--$1,027,133,446.44--was more than double the amount--$544,496,055.13--appropriated for the fiscal years 1897 and 1898 at both sessions of the Fifty-fourth congress, the last congress of the second Cleveland administration.

Only eight years elapsed between the close of the second administration of President Cleveland and the beginning of the second administration of President Roosevelt and yet the amount appropriated during the four years of the latter--$3,842,203,577.15--was more than double that appropriated in the four years Mr. Cleveland was at the helm--viz, $1,871,59,857.47.

For 1910, the last fiscal year provided for in congress under President Roosevelt, the highway mark in appropriations--$1,044,401,857.12--was reached.

President Taft's estimate to the last session of congress for government support for the fiscal year was $1,040,648,026.55.

In other words, governmental expenses for the FOUR YEARS of President Cleveland's administration (Democratic) were only $830,861,551.92 more than President Taft's (Republican) estimate of the amount necessary to cover the expenses of ONE YEAR of President Taft's administration.

Congressman John J. Fitzgerald of New York, a Democrat and chairman of the committee on appropriations, in addressing the house Aug. 26, 1912, on the subject of appropriations said, "Thoughtful men have watched with alarm the rapid increase in the cost of government in the United States." He further said that two causes seem responsible for many present evils:

"One, the UNFAIR AND UNJUST SYSTEM OF TAXATION by which an undue share of income by those whose circumstances in life are not considered more than reasonably comfortable is taken through our customs laws for the support of our government; the other, the difficulty or inability to readjust our system of taxation and to remove many taxes from the necessities of life, so long as the GOVERNMENT IS EXTRAVAGANTLY CONDUCTED, or the instrumentalities provided for the conduct of the public service are either inefficient or are not utilized so as to render the most effective and comprehensive results."

Mr. Fitzgerald then called attention to the fact that the Democratic party pledged itself if intrusted with power to do two things--REDUCE TARIFF DUTIES AND RETRENCH PUBLIC EXPENDITURES by eliminating waste in administration and the abolition of useless, inexcusable offices.

The Republicans talk about tariff revision, and yet when a Democratic house in fulfilling Democratic promises to the people reduced the tariff, a Republican president vetoed the measure. "By their works shall ye know them."

Democrats in every state of the Union should organize and prepare for polling a record breaking vote Nov. 5. Be it remembered that no matter how certain victory seems, overconfidence is always dangerous.

Is there any reason why the Democratic party should go out of existence simply because Mr. Roosevelt has taken up the Progressive measures adopted by the Democrats eighteen years ago?--W. J. Bryan.

Mr. Roosevelt stood as a guarantor for Mr. Taft. Mr. Bryan says, "Now, when Roosevelt has failed so utterly in his judgement of men, I ask can he pass correct judgment on himself?"

Fashion Hints from

Bischof

STEVENS-WILSON CO.

Of Course You'll Need a Tailored Suit

It is with renewed interest that every American woman looks forward to the tailor-mades each season. It is the one thing which you feel you simply cannot do without.

This season you will see many delightfully new and attractive departures in the tailor-mades which will, without doubt, instantly appeal to you.

"Finger-tip" Length Suit Coat

For several seasons past short coat suits have held full sway--but this Fall we enthusiastically welcome back the becoming "finger-tip" length--one which gives the coat graceful lines--the one which becomes any figure. The whole effect of the Fall tailor-mades are long, graceful lines.

Moderated cutaways and flowing collars emphasize the long lines on the fronts of these coats--shirred and belted backs, suggesting the Empire effect, carry out further the edict of fashion--long, slender lines.

The skirts, though plaits are used in many, retain these straight, narrow lines. These plaits are set in and are stitched down to the knees, then pressed flat to avoid any flare.

With all of these new features, however, marked simplicity is the keynote of every Bischof tailored model.

You no longer have to study for hours over the material for your tailor-made, then go time and again to the tailor for fittings, and worry about how it will look. You can come to our store and get a perfectly tailored Bischof model, in any of the fashionable materials--try it on and know at once that it is becoming. You are sure to find just what you want.

REPUBLICAN MEETING WAS A FROST

Oklahoma City, Oct. 2.--The Republican Conference in this city Monday afternoon is generally regarded by those who are on the inside as emphasizing the disorganization and general chaos existing in the republican machine. Chairman Geisler's call invited all State Central Committees, one from each county, all County Chairmen, seventy-six of each all legislative candidates including ninety-nine for Representative and twenty-four for senator, the ten electoral candidates, the eight candidates for Congress, and the candidates for Judge of the Supreme Court and the Criminal Court of Appeals, and for Railroad Commissioner, to attend the Conference.

If there had been a complete response to this he would have had a convention of 296 members, whose deliberations would have required a hall of considerable size. But there was nothing like this number present, and the Conference was held in a small room at a hotel. Only a few of the legislative candidates responded. Not even all of the men on the state ticket put in their appearance. Candidates for Congress were conspicuous by their absence and only about a dozen committeemen were present.

The resolutions which purport to be the party platform follow pretty closely the platform adopted by the Democratic State Convention. Every good thing in the resolutions is taken almost bodily from the democratic platform. Any declaration on National issues or any statement that would indicate the position of the Republican party of this state with respect to the presidential contest is conspicuously omitted. The conference entirely ignored the question as to whether Republicans should support Roosevelt or Taft, furnishing another detail in the circumstantial evidence proving a combination between the Bull Moose and the Elephant.

Though pretending to be a regular Republican Conference to outline the policies and plan of campaign for the Regular Republican Party in this state it did not have the courage to declare where it stands in the presidential contest. The question as to whether or not the regular republican electors are for Roosevelt or Taft was ignored. Thus the people of Oklahoma are given another demonstration of the fact that the remnant of the republican machine in this state is prepared to enter into any sort of a deal, even to the extent of treachery to the regular republican ticket in the presidential contest to promote its desperate efforts to capture some of the offices in Oklahoma.

NEW PRESIDENT FOR TAHLEQUAH NORMAL

Tahlequah, Oklahoma, Sept. 30.—W. E. Gill president of the Oklahoma state organization of county school superintendents has been appointed president of the Northeastern State normal and took charge today. He relieves President Frank Buck, who has been in charge of the normal for a little over a year. Buck takes a position with a New York publishing house.

State Superintendent R. H. Wilson is here to see President Gill properly installed. There has been considerable speculation as to just why the change of presidents was made. Superintendent Wilson throws no light on the matter further than to say that it is for the purpose of increasing the efficiency and making a bigger school at Tahlequah.

There is an interesting story of big school politics behind the appointment of Gill, however. He was one of the new members of the state board of education appointed by Gov. Cruce following the removal of three members of the Wilson faction. It is also said that he had decided to become a candidate for state superintendent against Wilson in 1914. Wilson, by appointing Gill appears to have killed two birds with one stone. He thus eliminates Gill as an opponent in the race for renomination two years hence, and he also eliminates him from the state board of education, the governor stating that Gill can not hold the presidency of the normal and be a member of the state board at the same time.

At night I was restless and in the morning felt all tired out. Seeing Doan's Pills advertised, I began using them and they did me a world of good. One of my children had rheumatic pains and other symptoms of kidney complaint. In this case Doan's Kidney Pills also gave great relief."

ing what cool days we have, so that we will not have to reduce our ice delivery service, order now and we will deliver to you as we can before the cool weather sets in. Remember that we handle the very best Coal, there is many poor mines in a district that is supposed to be good. We buy only from the best and where they prepare it best, there is a fire clay in all mines in this state, the least bit of fire clay in coal will cause it to clinker, the fire clay will get into all coal that is mined by the blasting process, we buy only machine mined coal which is the only process that will insure no fire clay, in mining with machines there is a roof and a floor left of coal and there is no way for it to get in, machine mined coal goes on the market at a much higher price than blasted coal, but we have always thought that our customers wanted the best and we have got it for them and sold it for about the same price some sells a low grade of coal for, also remember that we load our wagons with a fork which insures no slack, we can burn our slack under our boilers, and realize something out of it while it is worthless for stove use. We are the only coal dealers in town that has use for

At 2 o'clock this afternoon (Wednesday) the receipts at the county yard were 1,126 bales, and the output of the round bale gin 428, the equivalent of 214 square bales, making a grand total of 1,340 for the season.

SAYS LA FOLLETTE WILL VOTE FOR WILSON

Madison, Wis., Oct. 2.—The reader of the five La Follette articles on Roosevelt, which will run in a series at intervals of a week, beginning Friday, will come to this conclusion: Senator La Follette and his following will vote for Gov. Wilson for president.

Roosevelt will be put out of consideration by the attack on him as a fake Progressive, who is parading around the country with a false-face platform and hollow promises, which his record shows he will not endeavor to keep.

Taft will be pictured as the highest type of reactionary, but thoroughly honest, a quality not conceded to Roosevelt.

There will be no discussion of Wilson.

GOVERNMENT ISSUES COTTON REPORT

The government report on the cotton report received this morning was of a decidedly bearish nature, and as a consequence the price took a big tumble, closing about $1.50 per bale lower than on Tuesday. This afternoon it sold around 11.25.

The ginner's report given out this morning showed 3,015,033 bales ginned to Sept. 25, against 3,663,066 at the same date last year, a falling off of 648,033 bales, which was not as much as had been expected.

The condition report was 69.6 per cent, against 71.1 at the same time a year ago.

Here's Your Chance to Help Democrats Win

Send One Dollar to Contributors' Wilson and Marshall League and Get Certificate For Framing.

The Contributors' National Wilson and Marshall league has been organized with W. G. McAdoo, vice chairman of the national Democratic committee, as president, Charles R. Crane, vice chairman of the finance committee of the national Democratic committee, as treasurer and Stuart G. Gibbons as secretary for the purpose of aiding in raising funds for the national campaign by popular subscription.

In furtherance of this purpose lithographed certificates have been prepared, suitable for framing, on which are engraved portraits of Governors Wilson and Marshall and their autographs and which certify that the holders have contributed to the national Democratic campaign. The denominations of these certificates are $1, $2, $5, $10, $25, $50 and $100.

The league supplies these certificates to clubs in large numbers, so they may be issued when contributions are made. It is believed the solicitation of funds will be greatly aided by this method.

The name and address of each contributor should be forwarded to the Contributors' National Wilson and Marshall league, room 1368, Fifth Avenue building, New York city, where a complete record of all contributors will be kept.

A facsimile of the artistic certificates issued by this league follows:

DEMOCRACY MUST BE A WORTHY INSTRUMENT

People Trust It, Says Woodrow Wilson, and It Must Make Good.

Sea Girt, N. J.—Woodrow Wilson at the "Little White House" at Sea Girt is daily called upon to demonstrate his ability as a ready speaker.

There is not a day passes but what he meets various delegations who call to assure him of their support.

In speaking of political machines to the Brooklyn Democratic club Governor Wilson said: "Machines are bad, but an organization may be very essential. For instance, I have been surrounded by an organization here in New Jersey while doing my best work. A machine uses its political opportunities for the selfish ends of its members. No members of our organization would ever think of doing that. Public opinion in New Jersey has drawn the distinction. It has killed the machines, and it is going to keep the organization going."

"It seems to me that we are standing in the presence of something higher than allegiance to the Democratic party. The country has been disappointed in the Republican party, and it is turning to the Democratic party. That party is willing to show the way toward those things which must be realized."

"Some gentlemen seem to find it easy to make personalities out of politics, but it seems to me that whenever that is done politics is debased."

"Men who are in search of reform are now resorting to the Democratic party, because, for my own part, I do not know where else they will turn to expect the results. There is no discounting the strength and serviceability of a united party, and the splendid part is that the Democratic party is united."

"Speaking seriously, nothing affords me more genuine pleasure than to receive such greetings from men in Jersey who have at least tested my qualities. Because you have known me at close range and if you will be kind enough to vouch for me perhaps the rest of the country will be credulous of your report."

"I have spent a great deal of time since I became governor of New Jersey defending your character. It was supposed in the old days, when the board of guardians was in charge of the state, that you were all of you disposed to give the most monopolistic trusts in the country a great ringing welcome in New Jersey."

"New Jersey was known as the mother of trusts—a very troublesome and questionable family—and I had to spend my time outside New Jersey assuring the people of the Union that it had not been the fault or the disposition of the people of New Jersey that there were certain gentlemen who had undertaken to carry the Republican party in their pockets and to administer independently of the rank and file of Republicans in the state."

"New Jersey is progressive, but the United States is progressive, and we have here merely a delightful sample of the people of the United States."

"Now, these people are not bent on destroying anything, but they are bent on setting everything in order; they are bent upon justice; they are bent upon seeing to it that the people in general are partners of the government, as I was trying to show the other day. And the Democratic party is now placed under a peculiar responsibility. It has to prove that it is the worthy instrument of that zeal on the part of the people of the United States. If it does not prove it now it will never be given another chance to prove it. No party that proves unfaithful to that ideal will ever again be trusted by the people of America. And therefore we are standing at a turning point in our politics. We must make good or go out of business. In the vernacular, it is a case of 'put up or shut up,' because words are going to be discounted. Nothing will be honored except the actual carrying out of such programs as sensible men may unite in for the common benefit."

THE GREAT DUTY OF ADJUSTMENT.

We are servants of the people, the whole people. The nation has been unnecessarily, unreasonably at war with itself. Interest has clashed with interest when there were common principles of right and of fair dealing which might and should have bound them all together not as rivals, but as partners. As the servants of all we are bound to undertake the great son's Speech Accepting the Democratic Nomination.

duty of accommodation and adjustment.—From Woodrow Wilson

Wilson will make the most accessible president who has ever occupied the White House. He is typically a Democratic man.

Wilson is the best equipped man nominated for the presidency since Lincoln.

George W. Perkins is sure a "bully" Progressive.

NOTED BULL MOSER OUT FOR WILSON & MARSHALL

New York, Oct. 3.—Wallace Batchelder, former Rough Rider and a lifelong friend of Col. Roosevelt, who is supporting Gov. Wilson in the present campaign, has written to Rudolph Spreckles, head of the Wilson National Progressive Republican League offering assistance in connection with the league movement in Vermont. Mr. Batchelder was chairman of the Vermont Third Term party and stumped New Hampshire and Massachusetts in the interests of the Colonel's candidacy. He withdrew, however, when the Colonel attempted to compel his support of only such candidates as would support Roosevelt electors in the coming election. His indignant telegram to Col. Roosevelt repudiating the latter's high-handed methods of coercing his party workers is one of the interesting documents of the present campaign. It follows in part:

"I supposed I was fighting for the real rule of the people and against bosses and bossism. Your telegram makes it plain that you direct me—and men in every state—that we must not vote for any candidate for office, no matter how honest, able, efficient, or progressive he may be, unless that candidate will agree to pay for our votes by supporting Theodore Roosevelt for president of the United States again, by supporting Roosevelt electors. With grief, the depth of which you cannot know, after one of the hardest fights I have ever been forced to put up, I have decided that I cannot longer support you for president of the United States."

Mr. Batchelder is now at work lining up the Vermont progressive Republicans for Gov. Wilson.

"I have made up my mind that the only right thing for me to do is to support Gov. Wilson," he says in his letter to Mr. Spreckles.

Healthy Mothers

Women who bear children and remain healthy are those who prepare their systems in advance of baby's coming. Unless the mother aids nature in its pre-natal work the crisis finds her system unequal to the demands made upon it, and she is often left with weakened health or chronic ailments. No remedy is so truly a help to nature as Mother's Friend, and no expectant mother should fail to use it. It relieves the pain and discomfort caused by the strain on the ligaments, makes pliant and elastic those fibres and muscles which nature is expanding, prevents numbness of limbs, and soothes the inflammation of breast glands. The system being thus prepared by Mother's Friend dispels the fear that the crisis may not be safely met. Mother's Friend assures a speedy and complete recovery for the mother, and she is left a healthy woman to enjoy the rearing of her child. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for our free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature.
